MY HEALING WORK

In my healing work and in my courses I am guided by the ascended masters, the archangels and the release energies of the divine source, the ELOHIM.

With my clairsentience and clairaudience, I am able to discern a person's soul essence. Blockages on the level of the soul and on the level of the emotional body, which stop us from fulfilling our life's purpose, are released. Through this release the receipt of love, health and abundance will be able to take place, along with a manifestation of the divine essence.

During the many years I have been working I have received powerful tools to facilitate release and transformation. In the angel-healing programs divine aspects of a releasing nature are at work so that unresolved life issues can be transformed into gifts and healing.

The participants on courses and angel-healing days grow to understand themselves as gifts for the world. They learn to integrate those aspects of their being which make them whole and healthy.

The energies of grace which work through me open up the 'sacred space' which reveals divine truths and enables a new way of looking at all aspects of life. These experiences and this knowledge are deepened in the angel-healing year group, which should make the participants masters of their lives and true healers.

Sacred paintings are my companions. The healing paintings which I produce create a protected healing space in the seminars and function as inspiration.

The personal Elohim energy paintings emerge out of the divine essence of the spiritual name and the colours of the personal ray of light.

ANGEL-HEALING DAYS & COURSES

The angel-healing days and courses are dedicated to a specific Elohim healing topic. In my work I am guided by ascended masters, archangels and the release energies of the divine source, the Elohim.

The angel-healing days offer an opportunity to get to know my work and open up a protected space for the healing and transformation of a number of soul and life issues.

In the seminars we engage in intensive healing work. These courses are co-devised by each group of participants. Through energy work, meditation, initiation, angel-healing programs and guided energies of grace from the spiritual world, we enable the healing experience of receiving, and realise our inner spiritual potential.
